PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 106th CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION

Vol. 145

WASHINGTON, THURSDAY, APRIL 29, 1999

No. 60

Senate

The Senate met at 10 a.m. and was called to order by the President pro tempore [Mr. THURMOND].

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Today's prayer will be offered by our guest Chaplain, Dr. Thomas A. Erickson, Valley Presbyterian Church, Scottsdale, AZ.

We are pleased to have you with us.

PRAYER

The guest Chaplain, Dr. Thomas A. Erickson, Valley Presbyterian Church, Scottsdale, AZ, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.

Gracious and ever-living God, You promised through the Psalmist, "I will instruct you and teach you the way you should go, I will counsel you with my eye upon you."—Psalm 32:8. In response, we open our minds to You, asking that in all the business before us we may clearly see Your will and courageously do Your work.

O God, when world events threaten to crush our hope, reassure us that peace is possible, for Your will shall yet be done in all the Earth. Then help us to do what we can, individually and together, to achieve that peace for all people everywhere.

At the end of this day, let every Senator know, let every staff member and aide know, that they have done their duty to You, to their Nation, and to one another. Give them satisfaction in knowing that they have moved our Nation a step further in its unrelenting quest to be "one Nation under God, with liberty and justice for all." Amen.

RECOGNITION OF THE ACTING MAJORITY LEADER

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The able acting majority leader is recognized.

Mr. GRAMS. I thank the Chair.

SCHEDULE

Mr. GRAMS. Mr. President, today the Senate will immediately begin 1 hour of debate relating to the cloture motion to the McCain amendment to the Y2K legislation. At approximately 10:30 a.m., following that debate, the Senate will proceed to a cloture vote on the pending McCain amendment.

As a reminder, by a previous agreement, second-degree amendments to the McCain amendment must be filed by 10 a.m. today.

Following the cloture vote, the Senate may continue debate on the Y2K bill, the lockbox issue, or any other legislative or executive items cleared for action.

Also, as a further reminder, a cloture motion was filed on Wednesday to the pending amendment to S. 557 regarding the Social Security lockbox legislation. That vote will take place on Friday at a time to be determined by the two leaders.

For the remainder of the week, it is possible that the Senate may begin debate on the situation in Kosovo.

Mr. President, I yield the floor.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The able Senator from Arizona is recognized.

Mr. KYL. I thank the Chair.

GUEST CHAPLAIN THOMAS ERICKSON

Mr. KYL. Mr. President, it is an honor for me this morning to have in the Senate Chamber both of my ministers—of course, the Chaplain of the Senate, Lloyd Ogilvie, and the individual who gave our prayer this morning, who is Thomas Erickson, minister of the Valley Presbyterian Church in Scottsdale, AZ. This is the church in which I am a member in my home State of Arizona. His wife Carol joins him today in the Nation's Capital, and as I said, it is my honor to be with them today and certainly an honor for my church to have its minister deliver the opening of the Senate.

Valley Presbyterian Church is a dynamic congregation of some 2,400 members and growing. Reverend Erickson has been with the church now for almost 13 years.

Mr. President, you perhaps noticed that as he was delivering the morning prayer, if you closed your eyes just a little bit, it almost sounded like our Chaplain, Lloyd Ogilvie. I frequently do that when I am in church here or I am in the Senate Chamber. I close my eyes and I can almost hear the other speaking, because they have the same resonant voice, especially when delivering a prayer.

So I am honored, as I said, to be able to present Dr. Erickson to my fellow Senators this morning and all of those who observed the morning prayer on television.

I thank you, Mr. President. I yield the floor.

Y2K ACT—CLOTURE MOTION

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. GRAMS). The Senator from Oregon.

Mr. WYDEN. I thank the Chair.

To begin the hour of debate that we have on the Y2K measure, I would like to discuss the agreement entered into late yesterday, the special effort that was led by Senator DODD of Connecticut. Senator DODD has been the leader on our side on the Y2K issue. The agreement that was entered into last night involved Senator MCCAIN, myself, Chairman HATCH, Senator FEINSTEIN, Chairman BENNETT; a number of colleagues were involved. It seems to me that this effort, which was led by Senator DODD, has directly responded to a number of the concerns outlined by the White House in the statement that was delivered yesterday to the Senate. I would like to briefly outline the proposals which are going to be offered by the Senator from Connecticut in conjunction with the group of us that has been working on a bipartisan basis for this legislation.
